

Kristine H. Johnson

Bar Admissions:

- Michigan
- Colorado
- U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

Education:

- Juris Doctor, Indiana University, with concurrent graduate studies and research in molecular genetics and virology
- Bachelor of Science in Biology, Indiana University, Bristol Myers National Merit Scholarship, I.U. Honors Division Merit Scholarship

Memberships:

- American Intellectual Property Law Association
- Association of University Technology Managers

Professional Experience:

- Of Counsel with an established intellectual property law firm in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan from 2006 – 2009
- Founder of Bingham Hill Cheese Company, Fort Collins, Colorado from 1999 – 2006
- Private practice in Fort Collins, Colorado from 1993 – 2001
- Patent counsel for a corporation in Denver, Colorado from 1995 – 1996
- Biotechnology patent attorney with a pharmaceutical company in Indianapolis, Indiana from 1990 – 1993

Publications and Presentations:

- "Effective Communication in University Tech Transfer," panel member at Central Region Association of University Technology Managers meeting, April 2008
- "Adventures in Trade Secret Litigation," presentation to Oregon and Washington Licensing Executives Society Chapters, March 2008
- "Understanding Bioinformatics" book review in SciTech Lawyer (ABA publication) February 2008
- "Plant Intellectual Property Law," presentation at annual plant breeders meeting, January 2008
- "Food Trade Secrets," presentation to Michigan State University Law Students, December 2007
- "The Law: Confidentiality," article in Gourmet News, September 2007

Member

- johnson@mstfirm.com
- telephone: 970.227.8008
- facsimile: 419.255.9639

Practice Areas:

- Patents (U.S. and International)
- Trademarks (U.S. and International)
- Trade Secrets
- Licensing

Technology Areas:

- Food
- Pharmaceuticals
- Biotechnology
- Agricultural Matters
- Veterinary Medicine
- Molecular Biology
- Botany
- Chemistry
- Genetic Engineering
- Bioinformatics